

Connexions' QuickQuote – Connecting Lenders and AMCs with Appraisers Seamlessly

June 30, 2021 – Connexions, the all-in-one appraisal management software that provides high-quality automation, reporting, data analytics and integration to real estate valuations, is excited to announce the release of their new QuickQuote feature.

QuickQuote lets assigners request "quick quotes" from multiple appraisers at one time, as well as see their replies, all from within the assignment screen. This saves time on fees, due date negotiations and streamlines the communication process.

“Connexions is continuously advancing into a leading valuation solutions provider, establishing appraisal quality control, and for being the go-to platform for lenders, AMCs and appraisers to stay in sync with one another” says Tom McCormick, President & CEO of Connexions. “QuickQuote is revolutionary, and establishes one central system for efficiency, clarity and transparency – We’re thrilled to be offering this to our clients.”
