

RELNKS Facilitates Easy Home Renovations with Bidmii Partnership

June 15, 2021 – RELNKS, the digital homebuying platform, today announces a new partnership with Bidmii International Inc. - the innovative home improvement company helping to connect contractors to homeowners and real estate professionals. Bidmii will now be an available vendor for Ontario-based RELNKS users.

Bidmii offers an easy and intuitive method for finding, hiring, and paying qualified contractors at a fair price. RELNKS users interested in completing a home renovation can select Bidmii on the platform and upload pictures and a description of the project they are looking to complete. After submitting, the homeowner or real estate professional will be served quotes by various local contractors. From the available pool of contractors, the user can then find verified reviews from other Bidmii users, or connect with a contractor to make the payment and schedule the appointment.

“Our goal at Bidmii is always to make the entire home renovations process and experience easier for both homeowners and contractors,” said Jon Christensen, CEO, Bidmii International Inc. “We’re thrilled to partner with RELNKS and provide their members with an innovative new way to tackle home improvement projects that saves time and stress while ensuring quality results.”

RELNKS is designed to make buying a home an easier process for everyone involved. Whether it’s for a homebuyer, homeowner, or real estate professional, RELNKS is the central hub to find the people and resources needed every step of the way.

“Our partnership with Bidmii is a natural synergy that we are thrilled to offer to our RELNKS users,” says Tom McCormick, President and CEO of RELNKS and The Nationwide Group. “Like RELNKS, Bidmii is bridging the gap between consumers and professionals. We are pleased to offer our RELNKS users another innovative product to continue making every step of homeownership as accessible and flexible as possible.”

For a limited time, Bidmii will be offering RELNKS users a $25 discount on their first order. For more information on Bidmii and how it works, log in to RELNKS here.
